Anyone looking to make a statement with their interior design will find some pleasant surprises waiting or them in our range, including innovative products with practical installation solutions.

THERMORY
Thermo-treated wood

UNIQUE
FLOORING

Each tree species, with its distinctive characteristics, gives you the opportunity to play around with the feel of the space and the mood that the wood creates. You can use wood to produce highly effective interior design elements on your floors, walls and ceilings, as well as on staircases, work surfaces and more. In addition to enhancing spaces with its intrinsic beauty, using wood in homes and offices helps to create balance adding a certain softness to otherwise empty spaces and enlivening materials that look or feel cold while offering timeless elegance and durability.

SMOOTH FINISH

High-quality planing creates a splinter-free surface

SUSTAINABLE

Wood sourced from responsible forests with chemical-free thermal modification

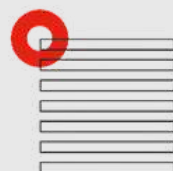

LIGHTWEIGHT

Easy handling and reduced thermal conductivity

PLENTY OF COMBINATIONS

A wide range of tree species and profiles to choose from

Add movement to your walls

Make your walls move with Thermory's interior panels. Refined panels with their unique patterns will give your walls an extra edge and a beautiful flow. Timeless, functional, durable and sustainable – that's exactly this range is all about. Each board is thermally modified, resulting in naturally beautiful and environmentally friendly products that last for generations.
